

Small Business Package

low cost marketing support from a marketing professional for less than £18 a day

Every business needs marketing to increase sales and market presence. Marketing mistakes can be expensive and hiring a professional marketer is an expensive overhead.

With limited budgets and no room for error, small businesses need support to achieve their goals. Sometimes they only need someone to ask their opinion or come up with new ideas.

The elevation factor offers a unique small business package which provides this affordable, personal marketing support. For less than £18 a day :

- Initial consultation to review current ideas and form a plan
- monthly meetings (half day) to review plan and ideas
- unlimited phone and email support
- advice on how to get the best return on your marketing budget
- savings on design, print, email marketing
- someone to work with you and help with new ideas
- access to over 20 years of sales and marketing experience

The cost:

£350 per month (invoiced monthly and payable on 14 days) plus travelling expenses charged at 40p per mile.
